

RICHARD C. SUTTON
SUMMARY VITA

Professional Experience: Thirty years of service in leadership positions at higher education institutions, including:

- Assistant Vice Chancellor for International Programs & Senior Advisor for Academic Affairs, University System of Georgia Board of Regents (1998-2009)
- Associate Director of Academic Affairs/Academic Planner, Iowa Board of Regents and University of Wisconsin System Administration (1996-97, 1992-1994)
- Director/Executive Director of International Programs, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse and Western Kentucky University (1984-1995, 2010-2012)

Education:

- Ph.D./M.A. in History (modern Russia), Indiana University (1984, 1977)
- A.B. (summa cum laude with honors in history), Duke University (1973)

Scholarship: More than eighty publications, policy papers, and conference presentations on a diverse range of topics in higher education and international education, including distance education, faculty workload and development, student retention and graduation rates, student learning outcomes assessment, institutional and sector mission review, comprehensive program review, and strategic planning.

Teaching Experience/Curriculum Development: Ten courses developed and taught or team-taught that were also new additions to the curriculum in fields of history, legal studies, international studies, foreign literature, and foreign language.

Professional & Public Service: Member or chair of more than thirty boards, committees, and consultancies. Program chair/organizer of more than twenty state and regional conferences and workshops. More than one hundred presentations to public constituencies on a variety of higher education and international topics.

Grantsmanship: More than $3.7 million in successful grant applications to thirty agencies and foundations, including awards from the U.S. Department of Education, U.S. Department of Defense (National Security Education Program), U.S. Agency for International Development, and U.S. National Institutes of Health.

Fellowships and Awards: Recipient of several nationally competitive and funded academic honors, including two Fulbright fellowships. Various honorary recognitions.

Personal: Married; two children.