Dear Dean Gershon:

Enclosed is the license for the Charleston School of Law for the five-year period August 1, 2007 through July 31, 2012. You must prominently display the license at the school.

The two remaining conditions of the license as stipulated by the Commission at its July 8, 2004, meeting are that 1) no "unique cost" or other special state funding be required or requested; and 2) in the event that the school, or its officers or agents, should make an attempt to cause the school to become a part of the College of Charleston or any other public institution, the license granted to the school shall be null and void and immediately revoked.

The Commission licenses nonpublic postsecondary institutions under authority of Act Number 497, 1992 South Carolina General Assembly, and the Rules and Regulations of the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education.

Please inform this office of changes in administration, location, instructional programs; of additional programs or sites you wish to add to the approval; or of any other change that may significantly affect the courses of instruction offered.
