

Introduction

Over the past several months, the Commission on Higher Education has engaged in an intense study and review of our statutory authority and obligations, an analysis of our budgetary needs, and the development of new internal policies. Through these actions, it is our goal to provide clarity, to meet best practices, and to ensure sustainability.

This report contains the resulting documents.