S.C. COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION WELCOMES NEW COMMISSIONER

COLUMBIA, S.C. – Governor Nikki Haley has announced the appointment of a new member to the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education.

Mr. Devron H. Edwards has been appointed and confirmed by the South Carolina Senate as a statewide at-large representative, filling a seat which was formerly vacant.

Mr. Edwards has been in the sports business industry for more than two decades. Throughout his career he has cultivated successful partnerships with organizations and countless blue chip companies. He has worked with many schools, conferences and businesses over the years to develop and grow academic and athletic opportunities. He attended Irmo High School and received his undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Kentucky. He has been with CBS Sports for 13 years. Devron and his wife Rana have two sons and reside in Chapin, South Carolina.

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (CHE) is committed to promoting quality, efficiency, and affordability in the state system of higher education through coordination, regulation, advocacy and oversight, as directed by the General Assembly. Information about current activities of CHE and higher education in South Carolina can be found on the agency's website: www.che.sc.gov
