

Relocation of the Commission on Higher Education

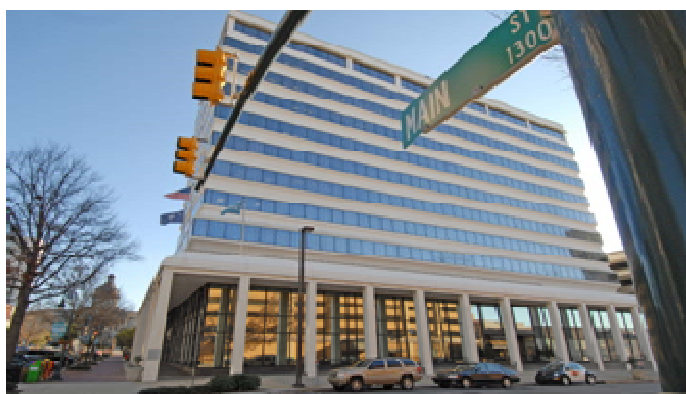

On August 30, 2011, the offices of the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education will be relocated. The agency's new address will be:

South Carolina Commission on Higher Education
1122 Lady Street
Suite 300
Columbia, SC 29201

Beginning August 30, 2011, all correspondence should be sent to the new address. Telephone numbers and email addresses for Commission staff will remain the same.

Commission offices will be on the second and third floors. All visitors will report to the third floor receptionist area and will be directed to the staff member being visited or the location of the meeting.

Our new offices will be at the corner of Main and Lady Streets, approximately one-half block south of the agency's current 1333 Main Street address. The building was formerly known as the NBSC building and is located directly across Lady Street from the Chick-fil-A.

New CHE Offices as of August 30, 2011
1122 Lady Street, Columbia, SC 29201

The move will begin on Friday, August 26, 2011, and will continue through Monday, August 29, 2011. If you telephone or send an email to a CHE staff member on these days, please note that there may be an unavoidable delay in responding.

When attending meetings at the agency's new location, parking will be available at meters on the street or in the city parking lot at the corner of Lady and Assembly Streets directly adjacent to our new building. There is no public parking available under the NBSC building.

Thank you for your patience during the next few weeks as we move to the new location.
