
SOUTH CAROLINA COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

COMMISSIONERS

Mr. Tim M. Hofferth, Chapin, Governor's Appointment at Large, Chair. Appointed by the Governor on 9/15/2015 and confirmed by the Senate on April 6, 2016.

Mr. Hofferth began serving on the Commission in March 2015 as an at-large appointee of the Governor. He is currently the Chairman and CEO of TMH Consulting, LLC and has been involved with higher education for the last 25 years in a variety of capacities. He served as a University Administrator and as the President and COO of one of the nation's largest multi-media rights companies. As President and COO of Nelligan Sports Marketing, Inc., he represented over 40 colleges and universities nationwide. He fueled the creation of this multimillion-dollar startup business for over 14 years which resulted in a strategic acquisition in February 2014, creating the largest collegiate multimedia rights holder in the country with 97 institutions. At 34 years old, he was one of the youngest Division I Director of Athletics in the country at Villanova University. Mr. Hofferth was on the Villanova University Vice President's Council and on the Executive Committee of the Big East Conference. In 2001, he was recognized by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal as a "40 Under 40" recipient, identifying him as one of the most influential leaders in the sports business industry. Currently residing in Chapin, S.C., he earned his Bachelor of Arts from the University of South Carolina, Aiken and his Masters of Education from the University of South Carolina, Columbia.

Mr. Devron H. Edwards, Chapin, Governor's Appointment at Large. Appointed to CHE in 2016. Committee Assignments: Academic Affairs and Licensing

Mr. Edwards, a new member of the Commission on Higher Education, has been in the sports business industry for more than two decades. Throughout his career he has cultivated successful partnerships with organizations and countless blue chip companies. He has worked with many schools, conferences and businesses over the years to develop and grow academic and athletic opportunities. He attended Irmo High School and received his undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Kentucky. He has been with CBS Sports for 13 years. Devron and his wife Rana have two sons and reside in Chapin, South Carolina.

Mr. Kenneth W. Kirkland, Greenville, Governor's Appointment at Large. Appointed to CHE in 2016. Committee Assignments: Finance and Facilities (Vice Chair), Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee—Board of Trustees Code of Conduct (Chair); Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee—SCCORE

Mr. Kirkland is currently a principal and owner of Premier Insurance Consultants, LLC in Greenville, South Carolina. A full service, independent insurance agency that has grown into a multimillion-dollar operation since its inception in 2001. As a successful businessman and entrepreneur, Mr. Kirkland has the additional experience of having worked in the Banking and Finance industry in various management positions with both Bank of America and National Bank of South Carolina. His volunteer service organizations include United Way of Greenville County, Kiwanis Club of Simpsonville, and Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is a graduate of the University of South Carolina Aiken with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and was a four-year letterman for the baseball team. Mr. Kirkland and his family are members of Praise Cathedral in Greer, SC where he is an active participant in the church orchestra. He is married to Jennifer Carlton Kirkland and has two children, Brittany and Michael.

Mr. Richard A. Jones, Jr., Greenville, Governor's Appointment at Large, Appointed to CHE in July 2017. Committee Assignments: Academic Affairs and Licensing; Access & Equity and Student Services

Richard A. Jones Jr., a partner with Dobson, Jones, Ball, Phillips & Bridges, P.A., practices in Greenville in the areas of employee benefits, business planning, federal and state taxation, and estate planning and administration. Mr. Jones regularly works with issues such as estate and gift tax planning, the preparation of wills and trusts, business formation and tax planning, and litigation. Mr. Jones, a retired Colonel in the Army Judge Advocate General's Corps (JAGC), previously worked as a trial attorney with the Internal Revenue Service and was Chief Legislative Assistant to the United States Senator Strom Thurmond. After entering private practice, Mr. Jones also had the honor of being National Chairman of the Internal Revenue Service's Commissioner's Advisory Group in 1991. Mr. Jones, a Certified Tax Specialist since 1984, earned his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law where he was a member of the Order of the Wig and Robe and served on the editorial board of the South Carolina Law Review. He earned his Master of Laws in Taxation from Georgetown University and earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration (Marketing) from the University of South Carolina. Mr. Jones places a priority on community and professional involvement. He is a member of First Baptist Church in Greenville, The Rotary Club of Easley, the Greenville Estate Planning Council, the South Carolina Bar Association, the Greenville County Bar Association and is listed in The Best Lawyers in America (Tax law, Trusts and Estates and Employee Benefits).

Mrs. Terrye C. Seckinger, Mt. Pleasant, Governor's Appointment 1st Congressional District Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2014. Committee Assignments: Academic Affairs & Licensing (Chair)

Mrs. Seckinger is a native South Carolinian and graduate of Clemson University. She has been involved in South Carolina state government for over two decades serving on The Juvenile Parole Board, The State Board of Education, and the SC Statewide Charter Public School District Board of Trustees an authorizer of public schools of choice in SC. Mrs. Seckinger served on Attorney General Condon's Obscenity and Pornography Commission and Internet Crimes against Children Commission as well as Governor Sanford's Commission on Children. She has assisted in the restructuring of the Department of Juvenile Justice under Governor Beasley and Chaired a Juvenile Justice Youth Council, addressing the issue of Juvenile Crime in SC. Recently she assisted in drafting and passing the Charter Public School Law creating public school choice in SC. She has a business background and was on the founding team of Palmetto Christian Academy, a K-12 private school in Mount Pleasant where she developed and taught their Character Education Program. As a student athlete she was a 1978 founding member of Clemson's Fellowship of Christian Athletes along with two football players. She is married to R. Stan Seckinger. They have two married boys and a third son who is a TE on Clemson's football team. She has been involved in the Charleston community serving in several capacities including the Charleston County Library Board, as a former Election Commissioner for the City of Isle of Palms, as well as a former Board of Visitor member at Charleston Southern University. Mrs. Seckinger currently serves on the Lowcountry Graduate Center Board of Directors as the CHE Ex-Officio Representative.

Admiral Charles Munns, Aiken, Governor's Appointment 2nd Congressional District Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2011. Committee Assignments: Academic Affairs and Licensing; Access & Equity and Student Services; Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee—Board of Trustees Code of Conduct; Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee-SCORE

Currently the President of Munns Advisement, LLC, Admiral Munns was formerly the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Savannah River Nuclear Solutions from 2007 through 2009. He served for 35 years in some of the US Navy's most high-profile and challenging positions, including: Commander, US Submarine Force; Commander, NATO Submarines; and Program Manager, Navy Marine Corps Intranet. Admiral

Munns received his Bachelor of Science degree from the US Naval Academy, his Master of Science, Computer Science degree from the University of Colorado, and his Corporate Board Directors Continuum Certificate from the University of Chicago School of Business. Admiral Munns is active in his church and serves on various educational and community committees.

Dr. Bettie Rose Horne, Greenwood, Governor's Appointment 3rd Congressional District Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2004. Committee Assignment: Access & Equity and Student Services

Dr. Horne taught at Lander University for twenty-seven years and spent the last six of those years in administration overseeing such projects as access and equity, tutorial services, academic advising, and student support services. She also spent seven years as an academic vice president and dean at an agricultural college in South Georgia and over three years in Atlanta at the University System of Georgia as Associate Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs. She earned her Ph.D. degree in linguistics at the University of South Carolina. Dr. Horne is active in her church and serves on boards which include Habitat for Humanity, Pathway Homeless Shelter, the Burton Center for special needs, Hispanic Children's Outreach, the Greenwood Flower Festival, Greenwood Performing Arts, and the Lander University Capital Campaign. Dr. Horne was married to the late Coach Finis Horne, has twin daughters, and is the proud grandmother of a fourteen year old granddaughter.

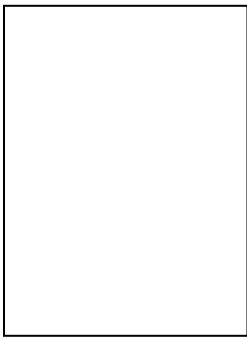

Ms. Dianne Coleman Kuhl, Greer, Governor's Appointment 4th Congressional District Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2014. CHE Vice Chair; Committee Assignments: Finance and Facilities (Chair); Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee-SCCORE

Ms. Kuhl is a graduate of Furman University, with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She served with Governor Carroll Campbell as director of the Governor's Office on Volunteerism, and is currently a partner with CORBIA, a diversified consulting firm in Greenville, where she is responsible for government and public relations. She is also Senior Consultant with the company's international division, working with overseas clients to evaluate and upgrade healthcare systems and medical education. Ms. Kuhl is an active volunteer, and has served on numerous boards and committees, including the Greer Memorial Hospital Community Advisory Board, Greenville County First Steps, and the WestEnd Association, where she was deeply involved in the redevelopment of Greenville's Historic WestEnd District. She is a graduate of Connections: Women Leaders in the Upstate, and a recipient of Furman's Political Science Advisory Board's Distinguished Service Award. Ms. Kuhl currently volunteers as marketing director for National English Shepherd Rescue and as a certified instructor for the American Red Cross. She is married to Dr. Dana Kuhl, and is a member of the Episcopal Church.

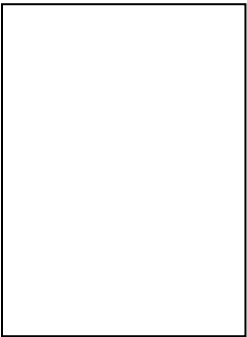

Mr. Kim Phillips, Gaffney, Governor's Appointment 5th Congressional District Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2011. Committee Assignments: Academic Affairs and Licensing; Finance and Facilities

Mr. Phillips is the HR Director at Hamrick Mills, Inc. Active in his community, he is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, a board member at the Cherokee Children's Home, a member of the Education Economic Indicators Committee in Cherokee County, a volunteer for United Way, and a former Cherokee County School Trustee. Mr. Phillips is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, with a B.S. in Business Administration. He also has his Professional in Human Resources (PHR) certification. His professional activities include membership in the Society of Human Resources Management (SHRM), the South Carolina Manufacturers Association (SCMA), the Spartanburg Development Association (SDA), and the Cherokee County Human Resources Group. Mr. Phillips and his wife, LeAnn, are the parents of four daughters. He and his family are members of First Baptist Church of Gaffney.

VACANT, Governor's Appointment 6th Congressional District Representative

VACANT, Governor's Appointment 7th Congressional District Representative

Mr. James A. Battle, Nichols, Governor's Appointment Research University Sector Representative, is a member of the Medical University of South Carolina Board of Trustees. Appointed to CHE in 2018. Committee Assignments: Access & Equity and Student Services

Mr. James A. "Mr. Battle" Battle, Jr. graduated from The Citadel with a B.S. degree in Business in 1964 and received a M.B.A. from the University of South Carolina in 1967. He served in the U.S. Army in Vietnam as a First Lieutenant. In 2009, he received a Doctorate of Humanities from Francis Marion University. Mr. Battle was a banker at Wachovia Bank & Trust as well as a financial consultant for Merrill Lynch in Charlotte, North Carolina. Later, he was an instructor in the Business Department at the University of North Carolina-Pembroke and at Francis Marion University. He is co-owner of several businesses in Nichols and Mullins, South Carolina. Mr. Battle served as the President of the South Carolina Aquaculture Association from 1994-1997. He also served as Chairman of the Marion County Hospital District from 1995-1996. He was the Chairman of the Center for Marine & Wetland Studies at Coastal Carolina University and was appointed to the Francis Marion University Business School Advisory Board in the 1980's. Mr. Battle served eight terms in the South Carolina House of Representatives from 1997 to 2012. In his last four terms, he was assigned to the House Ways and Means Committee where he was a sub-committee chairman his last year. During this time, he served as the Chairman of the Marion County Legislative Delegation. While a legislator, Mr. Battle was awarded the National Federation of Independent Business's Legislative Guardian of the Year in 2002 and 2008 and received the South Carolina Association of Taxpayer's "Friend to the Taxpayer Award" in 2008. He was also selected as Legislator of the Year by the Career & Technology Education Administration Division of the S.C. Association of School Administration in 2008. In 2011, Mr. Battle was appointed to the Executive Committee of the Northeastern Strategic Alliance, NESAs, which is an economic development alliance for the Pee Dee Region of South Carolina. He also serves on the Science, Technology, Engineering & Math (STEM) advisory board, the Marion County Healthcare Foundation board and the SC BIPEC Board of Trustees.

Dr. Linda L. Dolny, Greenwood, Governor’s Appointment Four-year College & University Sector Representative, is a member of Lander University Board of Trustees. Appointed to CHE in 2018. Committee Assignment: Finance and Facilities

In 1986, Linda formed PML Associates, Inc., a small consulting and training firm that employed seven full time associates and 50 part time trainers. After selling this business in 2010, she graduated from Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in 2014. She is on the HOPE Academy Foundation in Greenville, S.C. and the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education. Previous service includes: The Charlotte Branch of The Richmond Bank of The Federal Reserve System, 2006-2013, the Chair of Greenwood County Community Foundation and the Greenwood Area Chamber of Commerce. She was awarded Lander Alumnus of the Year, 1996, and the Grace Iller Norman award in 2013. In 2004, she received an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters, Lander University and in 2011 she was inducted into the Greenwood Hall of Fame.

Mr. Paul O. Batson, III, Greer, Governor’s Appointment, Public Technical Colleges Sector Representative. Appointed to CHE in 2015. Reappointed in 2016. Committee Assignments: Access and Equity & Student Services (Chair); Finance and Facilities; Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee—Board of Trustees Code of Conduct; Special Ad Hoc Subcommittee—SCCORE

Mr. Batson has operated an accounting and tax practice since 1987. He has served as an Area Commissioner for Greenville Technical College since 1998, has been their Board Chair for 4 years, and currently serves as their Audit Committee Chair. Mr. Batson has also served on the Board of Directors for the SC Association of Technical College Commissioners for several years and is currently that Board’s Chair. He has been involved in a variety of ways with the Technical College System since 1972 when he was hired as an instructor at Greenville Technical College. For 40 years, Mr. Batson has also been an adjunct professor in the undergraduate program at Furman University. Mr. Batson earned his BS degree from Clemson University and his MBA from Clemson at Furman University.

VACANT, Governor’s Appointment, Independent College & University Sector Representative

Rev. 07/01/2018