CHE APPOINTS INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

COLUMBIA, S.C. – The Commission on Higher Education voted today to appoint Mr. Jeffrey M. Schilz as Interim President/Executive Director of the agency.

Mr. Schilz is very familiar with the issues facing the Commission and higher education in South Carolina. "Jeff has the skill sets that we need right now," said Chairman Tim Hofferth. His credentials as an attorney and his experience working with South Carolina government and higher education make him uniquely qualified to help us continue to move forward towards our goals of greater accountability and more affordable education for the citizens of our state."

The Commission appreciates Mr. Schilz's willingness to assume this new role, and will begin the search for a permanent Director in the coming months.

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (CHE) serves as the state's coordinating body for higher education. CHE is committed to promoting quality, efficiency, and affordability in the state system of higher education through coordination, regulation, advocacy, and oversight, as directed by the General Assembly. Information about current activities of CHE and higher education in South Carolina can be found on the agency's website: www.che.sc.gov.
